

AZIZ FERIANI

Software Tester

My work ethic is based on collaboration and clear communication. I take pleasure in teamwork and have the ability to explain complicated concepts to both technical and non-technical stakeholders. I can easily learn new technologies, and I work well under pressure.

Software Tester

Wilo Dortmund

Worked with a 5-member team developing tools using Python to enable full Automation testing. We also worked with a team from turkey to test different Pump Softwares.

Worked on a Project for 6 Months to develop a Matlab Gui using Wilo large databases from polarion and Excel Sheets to improve Motor efficiency of Wilo Pumps. I worked on cleaning the data necessary for predictive models, analysing quantitative data and representing them in form of Plots and Diagrams.
